Individual/Group Expense Claims

Prior to the activity, fill in the “Estimated” column with your estimated expenses, and submit to the OSTU office for pre-approval. After you have attended the activity, please fill in the “actual” expense amounts of the form, attach receipts and submit them with the completed form.

NOTE: ALL RECEIPTS MUST SHOW ACTUAL CANADIAN FUNDS

Accommodation:

- maximum of $250.00 per night (receipt required)
- $25.00 per night for host family (no receipt required)

Travel:

- $0.54/km (no receipts required)
- Airfare (receipt required)
- Car rental, please contact the District PD Chair for prior approval – only approved if cheaper than other modes of transit.
- Public Transit / Taxi / Uber (at cost - receipt required)

Meals:

- $50.00/day (breakfast $12.00, lunch $14.00, dinner $24.00)

TTOC:

- $3400/day

These rates represent a ceiling for daily expenses. Teachers should claim only the amount actually spent, up to these daily limits, but not use them as a default amount to claim.

PD claims will be accepted until the last day of the following school year.

Contingency Fund Grant

- Applications for Contingency funds can only be made every year and to a maximum of $800 per the one claim.
- Application for the grant must be made and approved prior to the activity.
- Grant will only cover TTOC and/or registration costs (max $800 per one claim).
- Personal Professional Development allotment must be accessed and depleted as part of an application to contingency fund.
- Grants will be paid in order, according to the date the application is received.
- Teachers applying for grants must qualify for Professional Development funding under section F.1 of the contract.
- Proof of completed activity and any necessary receipts must be submitted before payment of grant is possible. Proof of completion of the activity is the responsibility of the teacher.

Criteria will be reviewed by the Professional Development Funding Committee annually.

Non-Credit Course Grant

1. Individuals may apply each year.
2. Grants will be paid, in order, according to the date applications are received.
3. Payments are limited to one non-credit course per claim. Any funds remaining at the end of the year will be used to make payment to individual applicants, in chronological order of receipt, for a second non-credit course. If the fund is still not depleted, more installments will be paid to individual applicants who have taken additional courses, until the account is fully expended.
4. Proof of completed course must be submitted before payment of grant is possible. Proof of completed course is the responsibility of the teacher. Course fee/TTOC expense maximum is $400 in total for the claim.
5. The following criteria shall be met in order for a professional development activity to qualify for the “non-credit course” status and funding:
 - six (6) or more hours of contact time with a single instructor or planned sequence of instructors; or series of on-line modules in an on-line course program
 - continuing focus on a single topic or theme advertised by the program planners as a complete program or a complete segment of a broader program
 - relevant to the field of education and the teacher’s work assignment
 - teachers must submit a course advertisement or instructor’s statement or a full course description with the application for non-credit course funds

Using Your Personal Professional Development Funds

Some examples of things teachers can be reimbursed for:

- Professional conferences, courses, workshops, and seminars
- Travel to professional conferences, courses, workshops, and seminars
- Professional reading (receipts with book titles must be included)
- PSA memberships
- Educational software (license for teacher use only)
- TTOC charges related to attending a workshop or conference
- TTOC charges related to observing in a colleague's classroom

Types of claims NOT covered by your personal PD funds:

- Books and teaching materials that will be used directly in the classroom (e.g., workbooks, class sets of novels, newspapers, novels to be read aloud to the class, reproducible or consumable resources)
- Cellular phone roaming charges while traveling to a PD activity
- Activities that are a personal interest, rather than professional
- Activities that do not relate to teaching
- Trips in which PD is not the primary focus
- Travel for shopping for resources
- Computer hardware, digital cameras, ipods, etc.
- Bundled software and consumable software (e.g., antivirus program)
- Consumables (e.g., paper, pens, printer ink, etc.)

Note: These lists are meant to give ideas about the ways in which we can spend our personal professional development funds, and are not complete lists.
