To help the PD Committee determine how much support you may need, please tell us how you feel about Self-Directed PD:

- 1. I need a lot of support with this process.
- 2. I am familiar with self-directed PD, but I have questions and I may need assistance.
- 3. I am very familiar with self-directed PD and feel ready to go. I may be willing to share the process with others.

Thinking About Your PD Goals

This reflection form is a useful place to begin when establishing some broad PD goals for the year. What do you know about your learning? Do you have a “wondering” about an aspect of your practice?

Reflection

1. My current strengths as a TEACHER are...

2. I learn best when... (i.e. in a group, alone, with an instructor, watching demos, on-line, reading, etc.)

3. When I think about my practice, I would like to know more about:

- Personalized Learning
- Classroom Management
- Student Self -Regulation
- Interactions with Peers
- Collaboration with Peers
- Interactions with Students and Parents
- Changes in Learning Approaches
- Technology Integration
- Assessment
- Subject Specific Teaching/Learning Strategies – Subject _____
- Teacher Life Work Management
- Other _____

Please submit a copy of this form to your school PD Rep. by May 30, 2014.
